PURO FLOW MEDIA · EDITOR GUIDE

Adit Brand Guidelines for Video

Every Adit video should look like the Review Challenge reels: bright, clean, white and light backgrounds, Adit's four colors, Ubuntu type and one clear comment call to action. Nothing dark, nothing template-looking.

COLORS

Adit Blue
#22A5DD · CTA buttons, labels

Adit Orange
#F0881E · dates, numbers, highlights

Adit Green
#32D399 · accent bar, confetti

Adit Yellow
#FDB611 · accent bar, confetti

Navy
#0B2540 · all headline and body text

White
#FFFFFF · backgrounds and caption cards

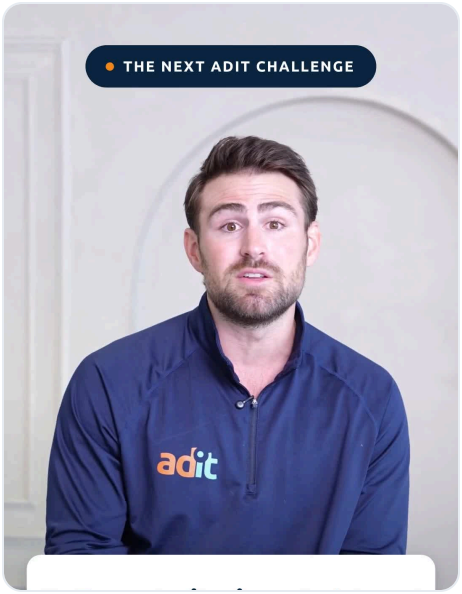

TYPE

- Ubuntu Bold for headlines, captions and buttons
- Ubuntu Medium / Regular for supporting lines
- Comment keywords in ALL CAPS inside a blue pill: DEMO

LOGO

- Full-color adit logo on white or light backgrounds only
- Never stretch, recolor or put it on busy footage
- Four-color bar (blue, green, yellow, orange) across the top of every graphic

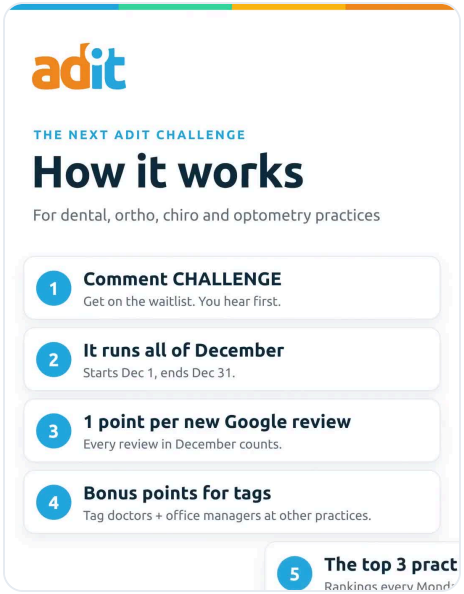

CAPTIONS AND LABELS

Captions: white rounded card near the bottom, navy Ubuntu Bold, key words in an orange highlight box

Name label: white pill with the adit logo, name and @get_adit

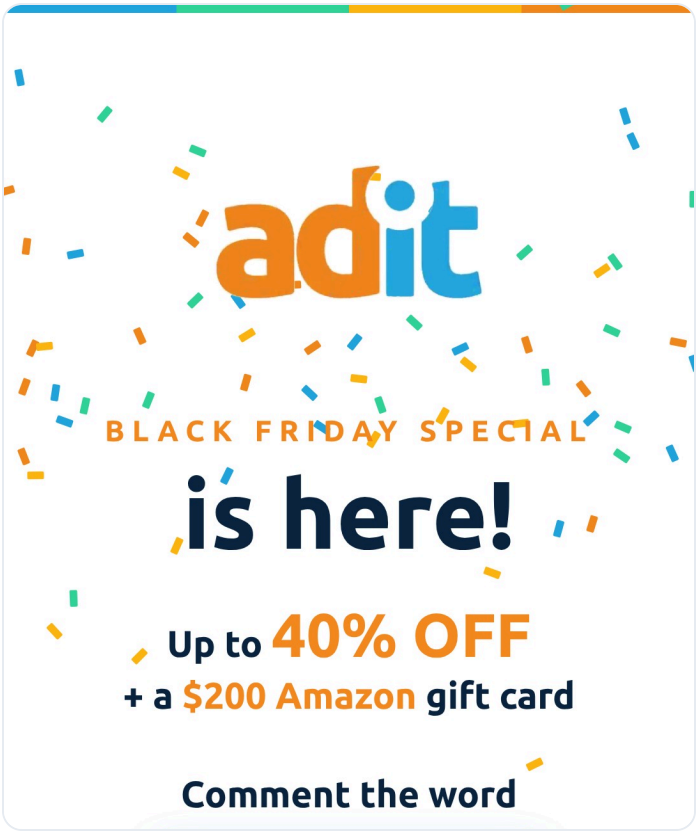

Info graphics: white cards, numbered blue circles, soft shadows

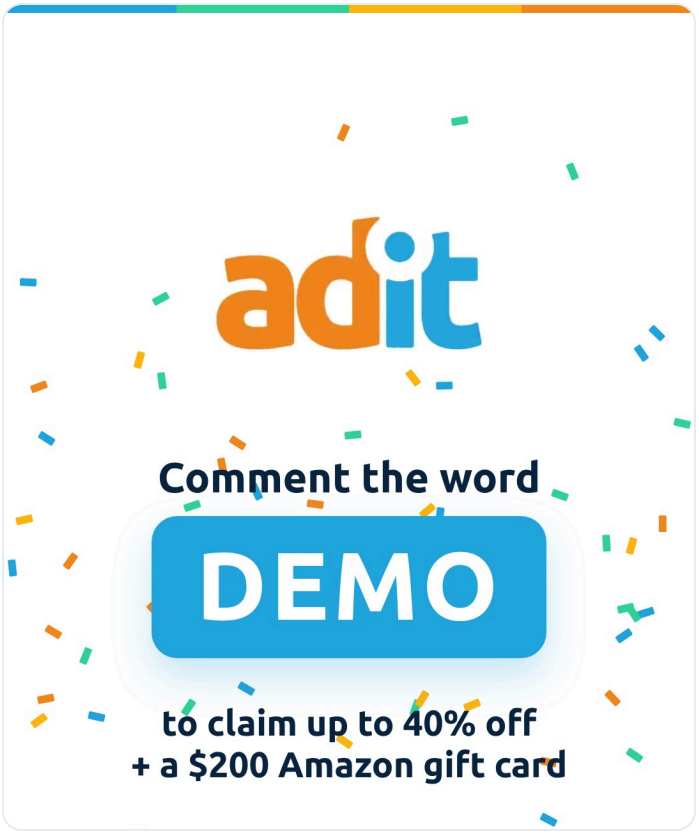

BLACK FRIDAY VIDEOS

Intro, outro and framing

Every Black Friday video opens with the branded intro and closes with the branded outro below. Both files are in your editor kit, ready to drop in.

Intro (first 4 to 5 seconds): "Black Friday Special is here", up to 40% off + $200 Amazon gift card, Comment DEMO and answer 2 quick questions

Outro (last 4 seconds): Comment the word DEMO to claim the offer. Ends November 30. Replaces the old end card

FRAMING BLAKE

- Punch in on every Blake shot: chest-up or waist-up
- Keep his pants out of frame
- Center his face in the top third, leave room for captions below

DELIVERY

- Export 1080×1920 vertical, H.264
- Upload to the company Drive with your @puroflowmedia.com email
- Post each video in that client's revisions channel (Adit: #adit-edits-revisions), tag Felipe and Adrian

DON'T

- No dark or black end cards, no cheesy stock templates or generic Black Friday graphics
- No colors outside the palette, no fonts other than Ubuntu
- No old outros: use the new DEMO outro on every Black Friday video
